Putting California
Back to Work…
Through Common Core Education Reform

Learn about:
• Common Core State Standards - required for all students in California beginning in the 2014-2015 school year
• Linked Learning – integrated academic and technical education for college and career readiness

Listen to State legislators, business and education leaders:
• Explain the challenges and benefits of Common Core
• Discuss effective and timely job creation programs that are currently in place
• Describe funding sources: SB1070 and California Career Pathways Trust

Provide Feedback on:
• Common Core
• Career pathways
• Partnerships to develop

Invited speakers:
Senator Carol Liu; Senator Ed Hernandez; Assemblyman Ed Chau; Mike Eng, LA City College Trustee; Mike Gallo, President & CEO - Kelly Space and Technology, Inc.; Jamil Dada, Vice President of Investment Services - Provident Bank; Cliff Daniels, CEO - Arcadia Methodist Hospital; Debra Jones, Dean of Workforce & Economic Development - California Community College Chancellor's Office

When:
Saturday, March 22, 2014
1pm – 3pm

Where:
Performing Arts Center of Baldwin Park
4640 Maine Ave,
Baldwin Park, CA 91706

Refreshments will be served

Questions:
Contact Bob Cruz
tp1ric@ca.rr.com
909-731-3281

Moderator:
Ron Bennett,
CEO
School Services of California, Inc.

Who Should Attend:
Business Leaders
School Board Members
Parents
Community College Trustees
Superintendents
Chief Business Officers
Career Counselors

Thank You to Our Generous Sponsors:

School Services of California, Inc.
Southern California Gas Company
CSBA